MEDIA RELEASE

The in-coming ACT Bar Association President Ken Archer has welcomed the Commonwealth Attorney-General's announcement, appointing Mr Shane Gill to the Family Court of Australia.

Mr Gill graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from the Australian National University in 1992. He was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory in 1992, and was called to the Bar in 2003.

Over the years, Mr Gill has provided leadership to the profession in many areas including the substantive law, law reform, advocacy and access to justice. "He has continued this leadership during his two year tenure as President of the ACT Bar Association". Concluded Mr Archer.
